

Healthy cows require good quality feed:

- Minimize the surface area (face) that is exposed to the air.
- A poorly managed, uneven face exposes more silage to air.
- Silage is a result of anaerobic fermentation (getting rid of oxygen/air when the feed is bagged).
- Avoid ripping or puncturing the bag

Poor quality, smells bad,
white or gray color

High quality, smells good,
nice color

