Small Animal Internal Medicine
Small Animal Medicine

• Rotation Emphasis
  • Dogs and cats

• Recommended
  • Required for all students

• Best time to take
  • Busiest in the summer

• Intern candidates
  • Take in late Aug-early Nov
Small Animal Medicine

- Clinic Schedule
  - M-F: 7:00am to 6:00pm+
  - Emergency transfers

- Outpatient/Inpatient
  - 50 – 50

- Weekend Duty
  - Yes – if you have inpatients
Small Animal Medicine

- What should you expect to do
  - Hx and PE with owner
  - Dx plans with clinician
  - Diagnostic procedures, CCU treatments
  - Client communication, case summaries, discharges
Small Animal Medicine

- Organization of receiving
  - Appts 10-2 every day
  - Students work with one clinician for each case
  - Topics rounds at 8 AM
  - Case rounds daily at 9 AM
  - Student presentations at end of rotation
Small Animal Medicine

- Service Specific Clinic Work Expectations
  - Patient care is the top priority

- On-Call Schedule/ICU
  - Yes

- Study Expectations
  - Read about cases nightly

- Other Comments
  - Med 1 / Med 2
Small Animal Medicine

• Questions ?