

ANESTHESIA and PAIN MANAGEMENT

Anesthesia and Pain Management

- Rotation Emphasis: general anesthetic & analgesic management of ALL species
- Recommended: everyone (required)
- Two weeks of confidence-building fun in anesthesia!! Lots of hand's on patient care and responsibility.

Anesthesia

- Hours:
 - Weekdays 7:00 am to when we're done 😊
 - Weekends: on call only
- On call:
 - shared with all students on rotation
 - 24/7 up until 8am on the Monday of the next rotation
 - Assisted by anesthesia faculty, resident, or technician

Anesthesia

- What you should expect to do
 - Plan and perform general anesthesia on mostly dogs and cats
 - Regardless of career goals, this will help cement your basic anesthesia knowledge and skills
 - Participate in daily rounds
 - Help your fellow students
- Study Expectations
 - Review of Anesthesiology notes PRIOR to rotation
 - Reading materials relevant to cases

Advanced Anesthesia Elective

- 1 or 2 weeks
- Anything you want it to be.....
 - More experience/comfort level
 - Directed goals
 - All equine, all special species
 - etc....contact Dr. Smith

Questions????

