

WILDLIFE MEDICINE ROTATION

Coordinator: Christoph Mans

Instructors: Shawna Hawkins, Grayson Doss

NEWISH!

Overview

- NEW in 2021!
- 2 week/2 credit rotation
- 2-3 students per rotation
- Based at:
 - Dane County Humane Society-WILDLIFE CENTER (DCHS-WC)
 - Wisconsin Humane Society Wildlife Center

Rotation Objectives

1. Learn about legal framework of wildlife rehabilitation
2. Learn how veterinarians can work with licensed rehabilitators to optimize care and welfare for injured/orphaned wildlife
3. Learn about husbandry and care of native wildlife in rehabilitation settings
4. Practice important clinical skills including fracture repair, wound management, supportive care, pain management, antimicrobial therapy, etc

Rotation Activities

- 1-3 days/ week hands-on work in husbandry, triage, nursing case with vet techs/rehabbers at DCHS-WC
- Twice weekly veterinary visits at DCHS-WC
- Once weekly visit to WHS WC

Rotation Activities

- Weekly wet-labs
 - Turtle fracture repair lab
 - Avian fracture repair lab
- Assigned virtual cases/topics
- Assigned radiographs & blood smear reviews

Questions?

shawna.hawkins@wisc.edu

christoph.mans@wisc.edu