

Committee on Academic Staff Issues (CASI) Meeting

Friday, February 17, 2023

1:00 p.m.

Room 2166

Minutes

Present:

Mark Markel	Kaye Garrison
Ryan Bruner	Ann Mitzey
Jenny Dahlberg	Julie Johnson
Chris Eisele

1. Approval of the Minutes – M. Markel

The meeting minutes of November 3, 2022, were approved. (M/S/U)

2. Business Arising – M. Markel

None

3. Academic Staff Institute Reminder to Register – J. Dahlberg

Jenny reminded all to register for the half day academic staff institute conference (in person on April 4th). The meeting has been historically very popular with various breakout sessions and a keynote speaker. More information can be found at: <https://acstaff.wisc.edu/programs/academic-staff-institute/>

4. SVM CASI DEI Forum, March 31 – J. Dahlberg

CASI will host a DEI focused session over the noon-hour on March 31 with guests Felipe Garcharna and Jana Valeo, co-chairs of a recent campus committee looking at academic staff DEI issues. The forum will feature both campus information presented by the guests, but also specific engagement with Richard Barajas around staff opportunities to engage in DEI activities (over pizza lunch). CASI will have a hybrid (Zoom) option available for remote participants to engage. An announcement will be coming soon to invite all SVM to participate.

5. Assembly Updates/Campus Climate Survey Results – J. Dahlberg

The February assembly meeting reviewed the outcomes of the Climate Survey (2022) which is now available for review on the Provost' website, via an interactive portal:

<https://acstaff.wisc.edu/programs/academic-staff-institute>.

The data is campus-wide, but can be broken down into units, by specific title and other variables, for anyone interested in learning more about the outcomes.

6. Dean's Comments – M. Markel

None

7. Meeting adjourned: 1:23 p.m.

8. Next Meeting: April 17, 1:00 p.m.
